

www.eMarine.org

A unit based website.

The Battalion uses eMarine to pass information and upcoming events. Marines and family members will each have their own accounts. Marines will need to register for the 1st Battalion eMarine page upon check in with the FRO. Please try and have your username and password with you when you check in, as well as you a good email address for your significant other. If you no longer know your login information, click 'forgot username or password' to retrieve your information. Your check in sheet will not be signed off until you are registered under 1st Battalion's eMarine site.

Significant others: If you do not receive an email inviting you to the site once your Marine is checked into the unit, you can access it on your own. You will visit www.emarine.org, click the blue 'Find a Unit Site' button on the top right hand corner of the screen, and subscribe as a Family Member. If you are having issues logging in please see the eMarine Frequently Asked Questions below- if you're having browser issues, solutions can be found in the FAQs. Please remember your eMarine password as the battalion is transitioning to using eMarine more frequently to pass information.

I already have an eMarine account. Why do I have to do it again?

You will need to subscribe with 1st Battalion in order to see our page. You will be using the same account, just subscribing with us. To do so, login to your account and click on the blue 'Find a Unit Site' button on the top right hand side of the screen. Go about registering as you did the first time.

A large red reminder will come up telling you that you are logged in as yourself, continue through that message and follow the directions until you see 1st Battalion's page. You're now subscribed!

I forgot my username and/or password. What should I do?

Click on the "Login" link at the top of the page on the right and then on "Forgot your login info?" You'll be asked for your email address and an email will be sent with your username and a link to follow to change your password. Please note your password must meet DOD password requirements.

When I put in my email address in trying to retrieve my password, the system tells me that I do not have an account.

Be sure to use all possible email accounts you may have registered with, personal and work. If none of those work, try to register by going to 'Find a Unit Site' and continuing through registration. If that does not work send a

The system says my Sponsor information cannot be found.

When you subscribe to your Unit's site, you must identify yourself with your Sponsor's information against the Unit's Sponsor Database. This must be an exact match with the information in the database. Capitalization is not important, but spelling is:

For example, "STEVEN" and "Steven" will match, but "Steve" will not because they are not spelled the same. This means any initials, spaces, punctuation, etc. must be entered exactly the same as what is in the Sponsor Database for your Unit's site.

This also applies to the last four of the SSN. Please make sure you are spelling everything correctly.

It may be that the database needs to be updated with your Sponsor's information. If that is the case, you will need to contact your Unit for more information. Click on the 'Contact Us' link and send feedback to "Your Unit."

I subscribed a while ago and I still haven't been approved.

Approval of subscriptions to your Unit's site are controlled by the FRO Administrators for your site. You will need to contact them for more information. Click on the 'Contact Us' link and send your feedback to "Your Unit" for more information.
